PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

In May 2015 I graduated from Veterinary Medicine at Warsaw University of Life Sciences (WULS-SGGW) in Warsaw, Poland. Since then I have been working at various Small Animal Practices and at the same time I started my doctoral studies at Small Animal Reproduction Lab at Veterinary Faculty, WULS in September 2015 and finished them in September 2020. Since September 2019 I work as a scientific-didactic assistant at the Department of Small Animal Diseases, Veterinary Faculty, WULS, Warsaw, Poland. Since February 2021 I work also as an academic teacher at Applied Animal Psychology of Faculty of Psychology, University of Warsaw, in Warsaw, Poland. I have been also working as a translator of professional veterinary articles from English to Polish for Veterinary after Diploma journal (Weterynaria po Dyplomie). In November 2021 I obtain the title of national specialist of dogs and cat diseases after graduating from the post-graduate studies in Dogs and Cats Diseases. My field of interest are small animal reproduction, small animal obstetrics, and internal diseases.
